New London Harbour Towers Receives 'Community Revitalization Leader of the Year Award' from the Chamber of Commerce of Eastern Connecticut

New London Harbour Towers, luxury residences with resort-like amenities in the heart New London's Historic Waterfront District, today announced that it has won the Regional Chamber Award for '2009 Community Revitalization Leader of the Year' from The Chamber of Commerce of Eastern Connecticut.

New London, CT (Vocus/PRWEB) March 24, 2010 -- New London Harbour Towers, luxury residences with resort-like amenities in the heart New London's Historic Waterfront District, today announced that it has won the Regional Chamber Award for '2009 Community Revitalization Leader of the Year' from The Chamber of Commerce of Eastern Connecticut.

The award, recently presented at the Chamber's Annual Meeting, underscores the significance of the construction of the 52 unit New London Harbour Towers and its contribution to the beautification and ongoing revitalization of New London.

"New London is a city we believe in and it made perfect sense to invest the energy we have in New London Harbour Towers," said Anthony Silvestri, project manager of New London Harbour Towers. "The city of New London has been very supportive of this project, helping us gain approvals in a timely fashion that will soon culminate in a showcase property in the heart of the city. We are very pleased to be here and proud to have been acknowledged as a "Community Revitalization Leader" by The Chamber."
