New London, CT (Vocus/PRWEB) May 12, 2010 -- New London Harbour Towers, luxury residences with resort-like amenities in the heart New London's Historic Waterfront District, today announced that its Premier Opening week was a success, culminating in a public open house that saw 800 people walk through the 52 unit complex.

New London Harbour Towers' Premier Opening week attracted over 1,200 people during 6 days of events. Every day featured a prize-filled scavenger hunt designed to help guide visitors through the 52-unit residence. Faddy's Donuts made over 2,300 donuts on site during the opening.

"We were overwhelmed with the response and feedback during Premier Opening week," said Anthony Silvestri, project manager of New London Harbour Towers. "New London Harbour Towers is now officially open and we invite those who couldn't be here during the festivities, to come by and have a tour of our building."

New London Harbour Towers offers many amenities for the buyer looking for "luxury with an urban edge" and was recently awarded "Community Revitalization Project of the Year" from the Chamber of Commerce of Eastern Connecticut. New London Harbour Towers is located at 463 Bank Street, in New London.

About New London Harbour Towers

Few residences can match the exceptional offerings of New London Harbour Towers -- located at Columbus Circle in New London, Connecticut's Historic Waterfront District. Boasting sweeping views of the Thames River and Long Island Sound, New London Harbour Towers is the only luxury residence in the region with multi-level, secured, covered parking and secured elevator service. Each residence comes with its own climate controlled storage unit and reserved parking space. This property includes a fourth-floor recreational deck complete with an indoor/outdoor solar heated spa-pool with whirlpool jets and endless pool system, a full exercise facility, pub-style community room with flat screen TV's, and a private movie theater with stadium seating.
